

Press release

techUK confirms new appointments to its Main Board

[LONDON 7 July 2026]: Today, techUK welcomes eight new directors to its board with effect from 1 July 2026. Board members serve three-year terms and are drawn from across the techUK membership.

The incoming directors are:

- Nathan Hancock, VP and MD UK&I, Adobe
- Nicola Hayes, Chief Marketing Officer, Platform Markets Group
- Guthrie Holliday, Managing Partner, BetterGov
- Anthony Levy, Founder and CEO, Circularity First
- Mairead O'Sullivan, Head of Government Relations and Regulatory Strategy, UKMEA, London Stock Exchange Group
- Ruth Patterson, Vice President and Managing Director, UK and Ireland, HP
- Kerry Sinclair, EVP of IT, Sage
- Jon Young, Partner, Deloitte

Julian David OBE, techUK's Chief Executive, commented:

"I'm delighted to welcome these new board members from across our membership. Their appointment reflects the depth of skill, experience and diversity found throughout our member base. As the technology sector undergoes profound transformation, we look forward to partnering with the incoming board to examine how technology can deliver benefits for people, society, the economy and the planet."

-ENDS-

About techUK

techUK is the technology trade association that brings together people, companies and organisations to realise the positive outcomes of what digital technology can achieve.

With around 1100 members (the majority of which are SMEs) across the UK, techUK creates a network for innovation and collaboration across business, government and stakeholders to provide a better future for people, society, the economy and the planet.

By providing expertise and insight, we support members, partners and stakeholders as they prepare the UK for what comes next in a constantly changing world.